

Advent 3: John the Baptist

The Brightest Star

A Voice in a wild place – calling a song of hope:

Listen....

What if all around us
Were sounds of people seeing and knowing God's love?

No more faceless housing schemes:
damp, disease, malnutrition drug culture - all gone

No more third and first world: the obscenity of plenty and the curse of nothing - vanished.

Abusive families,
exploited neighbourhoods warring factions –
all disappeared into dust

Churches & Mosques becoming playgrounds, Cathedrals turning into living gardens with fountains and fish tanks

Clean water, pure air, free education,
meaning for each day,
food for all

Life given, not taken love shared, not rationed

The last first:
the very least
the brightest star
